Bylaws of Salmon Arm Fish and Game Club (the "Society")

Part 1 – Definitions and Interpretation

Definitions

1.1 In these Bylaws:

The name of the Society is "Salmon Arm Fish and Game Club" hereinafter referred to as the Club.

"Act" means the Societies Act of British Columbia as amended from time to time.

"Appeal Board" is a three (3) member board created from members of the Board of Directors to hear an appeal against a club order issued by a Board of Investigation.

"Board" means the Directors of the Society, or members of the Board of Directors comprising executives, directors at large or division directors.

"Board of Directors" or "Board" refer to the executives, directors at large and division directors that manage the Club.

"Board of Investigation" is a board created from a minimum of three (3) members of the Board of Directors and cannot serve on an Appeal Board for the same case. They investigate incidents that:

- a) endanger fellow shooters;
- b) violate firearms range safety rules; and
- c) breach rules or clauses in the legislative framework, alleged or observed.

"Bylaws" means these Bylaws as altered from time to time.

"Conflict of Interest" occurs when a director on a Board of Investigation or Appeal Board:

- a) can not make an impartial decision about a member under investigation because of their relationship to that member; or
- b) may be affected by the results of that decision.

"Club" and "Society" refer equally to the Salmon Arm Fish and Game Club.

"Club Order" is a written decision issued to a member by a Board of Investigation after it has examined reported, alleged or observed incidents. See definition of "Board of Investigation."
